Korean Truce Negotiators Still Haggle Over Prisoner Exchange

RESULTS ARE REPORTED TO BE NEGATIVE

Munsan, Korea, Dec. 17—(AP)—Truce negotiators haggled over prisoner exchange and armistice supervision again today. A United Nations spokesman said results are "absolutely negative."
"No progress," said the U. N. spokesman.
Only 10 days remain before the provisional cease-fire line across Korea expires.
Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, U. N. spokesman, said the Reds have not asked for an extension beyond the December 27 deadline, either have the Allies.
"There is no question of extension of any time limit or anything," Nuckols said. "This was a 3-day trial offer, you might say. Nuckols said the time limit as proposed by the United Nations command to hasten agreement on a truce, but "if the progress made this far is an indication of the effectiveness of the incentive, then I don't think the incentive provided very much incentive."

Under terms of the agreement, provisional 145-mile cease-fire line across Korea would become the center of a 2 1/2-mile wide buffer zone if an armistice were signed by December 27. If no agreement is reached before the deadline, the negotiations and the fighting will continue. A new line will be drawn just before a truce is signed, to include any battle changes.

An Allied radio broadcast from Tokyo Monday night declared acceptance of Red demands for blanket exchange of war prisoners might sentence some Allied soldiers to life in Communist slave labor camps.

Death Claims Dorothy Dix, Writer of Nation's Best Known Heartbalm Column

New Orleans, Dec. 17—(AP)—Dorothy Dix, known to millions of newspaper readers as a conductor of a heartbalm column, is dead.

Miss Dix, in private life Mrs. Elizabeth Meriwether Gilmer, suffered a stroke about two and a half years ago. Death came yesterday.

Reference books list her age as 81, but associates said she concealed her real age for years and that she was actually 90 when she died. She was a native of Montgomery county, Tennessee.

Private funeral services are planned here tomorrow.

SWEARING IN CEREMONY

Pittsburgh, Dec. 17—(AP)—At its own request Judge Michael A. Musmanno will take the oath as justice of the Pennsylvania supreme court here January 3. Chief Justice James B. Drew will administer the oath. Musmanno, a Democrat, won election to the post last November. He Allegheny county court post will be filled by appointment by the governor.

New Storm Center Reported In West to Bring East More Snow and Frigid Temperature

Punxsutawney, Dec. 17—(AP)—This little western Pennsylvania town, home of the famous groundhog weather seer, reported a low temperature of 30 degrees below zero today—believed to be a new all-time low for the month of December.

By The Associated Press
Winter had new terrors on the way, timed to arrive consecutively behind the great blanket of frigid air that has covered the country east of the Rocky Mountains since Friday.

The weather bureau in Chicago today said a storm center is developing east of the Rockies. It will bring snow to the north, sleet and freezing rain a little farther to the south. Moving in behind it will be a new great cold from Canada, already touching northern Montana.

There will be only scattered areas of moderation of the weather that has exacted a toll of at least 117 lives since Friday.

Steel Wage Talks in Pittsburgh Are Believed Headed Toward Crisis Today

Pittsburgh, Dec. 17—(AP)—Steel wage talks headed for a crisis today.

The potent CIO United Steelworkers brought its executive board and wage policy committee to this steel capital for possibly momentous sessions.

The USW's top strategists may either outline the way to a peaceful settlement or lay the groundwork for a nation-wide steel strike.

While union leaders huddle here, Washington officials are getting set to wage into the twin problems of wages and prices in an effort to speed signing of a new contract before the Jan. 1 strike deadline.

Should a walkout be authorized, Cyrus S. Ching, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, is expected to call industry and union negotiators to Washington.

But if the union decides to withhold its first-of-the-year strike threat for a while, Ching may delay arranging bargaining sessions in Washington.

In the nation's capital, OPS officials are discussing steel prices with industry leaders.

Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam says he had told the industry that any automatic price increase based on a wage rise would not be permitted.

Today's Washington talks on steel prices were set for 2 p. m.

Battle Over the Budget and Taxes In Pennsylvania Reported As About Over

Harrisburg, Dec. 17—(AP)—The battle of budget and taxes in Pennsylvania is just about over.

Only the signature of Gov. John S. Fine is needed to make into law a $113 million tax package devised as a substitute for the one-half of one per cent income tax.

FIVE PROBES LAUNCHED IN PLANE CRASH

BULLETIN

Miami, Fla., Dec. 17—(AP)—A defective heater may have caused the crash of the Miami Airlines plane at Elizabeth with the loss of 56 lives.

W. Duff, president of the company, said today "it can only be a surmise" but: "It may be that the fuel line of the heater became disconnected and sprayed raw gasoline into the engine nacelle."

He reported the plane's departure from Newark was delayed while mechanics worked on the cabin heating system. The outside temperature at the time was a freezing 20 degrees.

He said the company carried $1,000,000 liability insurance on the plane. "We had $50,000 on each seat with limit of one million," said the official. "That's more insurance than many lines have."

Elizabeth, N. J., Dec. 17—(AP)—Authorities, goaded by angry townspeople, today opened a five-way investigation on the flaming crash of a Florida bound airliner in which 56 persons died.

It was the second worst commercial airplane disaster in American history. Fifty-eight perished in a Lake Michigan crash June 24, 1950.

"It is too early to make any statements, but we are now in the initial stage of securing records," said Joseph O. Fluet of the Civil Aeronautics Board, who heads the investigation.

The twin-engine C-46 Miami Airlines, Inc., plane—three miles off Newark airport—just missed the downtown Elizabeth business section and smashed into a fairly open river bank as the pilot fought heroically to control it. He was Albert C. Lyons of Miami.

The 66th and last broken, charred body was dragged from the nose of the smashed plane this morning. Police believed it was the body of either the pilot or one of the co-pilots. Rescue workers halted operations after midnight and resumed when daylight came.

Aboard were 48 adult passengers, four children, a three-man crew and a stewardess.

The blazing plane clipped a vacant house and wrecked an unused water pumping station, injuring one man slightly. Children fled screaming to safety from its path.

The non-scheduled airliner took off from Newark at 3:02 p. m. (EST) for Tampa and Miami. A non-scheduled airline flies at irregular intervals, usually when it gets a full load.

It crashed seven minutes later, in this city of more than 100,000 persons about 10 miles from New York.

STATION HAS PARTY

Approximately 50 persons gathered in the private dining room of the Hotel Carver Saturday evening to enjoy the annual Christmas dinner and party given by the management of Station WNAE. Following dinner, Manager David Potter extended greetings, distributed employees' bonuses, and announced the gift exchange. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

FATAL TAVERN QUARREL

Jeannette, Dec. 17—(AP)—Henry P. Armond, 33, of Grapeville, is being held on an open charge today in a weekend tavern shooting that killed Jack Conti, 33, also of Grapeville. State police said Conti was shot in Frank's tavern following a quarrel.

GIFTS FOR WAR VETERANS—Each year Dinsmoor-Schwung Post, VFW, and Auxiliary, play Santa Claus to War Veterans who are patients at the Warren State Hospital at North Warren. The annual Christmas Party was held Saturday evening with a large number of members of the two organizations helping to distribute the gifts shown in the above picture, which was taken at the Post rooms before leaving for the hospital. In the picture, left to right, are four entertainers who took part in the program with a floor show furnished by the Post. They are: Barbara Champion, pianist and accompanist; S. P. Giunta, saxophone; Kenneth Johnson, trumpet; and LeRoy Johnson, accordion. Further details concerning the party are found in the article below.

Dinsmoor-Schwung Post and Auxiliary Remember Vets at the State Hospital

Their annual Christmas visitation to veterans at Warren State Hospital was made by the members and Auxiliary of Dinsmoor-Schwung Post 631, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Saturday night, when the V. F. W. group and the ladies went to the hospital with an entire truckload of goodies and gifts and several automobile loads of entertainment.

Most of the 150 veterans were gathered in the old chapel to enjoy the Christmas party, and those unable to be present also were remembered by the hosts.

Albert F. Arnold stepped before the "mike" to welcome the patients and Ralph Akers, commander of the Post, giving them a "hi, fellows and Merry Christmas!"

Billy Carlson, well known vocal Warren vocalist, sang "Because of You," "Silent Night," and "White Christmas" with Barbara Champion at the piano.

George Cunningham, Jr., sang "Holy Night" and "Away in a Manger" and then led the veterans in group singing; they having been provided with special song sheets for the occasion.

George Cunningham, Sr., gave a humorous Christmas reading in Swedish dialect, announcing himself as "one Swede who came from Ireland."

Denny and June McGillicuddy, who put on the floor show during the weekend at the Vets' Club, provided entertainment and featured a dancing act, "They Are Two People," which amused the guests no end.

Mr. Cunningham, Jr., led in more group singing and the ladies and veterans, assisted by Commander Howard Thompson and several of the Auxiliary members from Clarendon, served refreshments and passed out boxes of candy, nuts, apples, oranges, cigarettes, snuff and magazines to the veterans. Each one also received a canteen pass to use as he saw fit, and at the close of the evening one of the patients suggested a rousing cheer for the V. F. W. men and ladies, which was given and the evening closed with "Merry Christmas" on the lips of all.

A very good orchestra provided music during the evening, and accompaniment for the singing. It was composed of Ken and Leroy Johnson and "Doc" Giunta, of Warren, and Jim Nazzaro, who made the trip from Jamestown in bad weather conditions to do his bit.

The V. F. W. was very appreciative of this fine donation of talent from all who assisted. Members of the band appeared under auspices of Bradford Local 84, American Federation of Musicians.

The visitation, Saturday night, takes the place of the monthly call of the Cooties and Cootettes, the next entertainment by them being planned for January 20.

SUNDAY DELIVERY

With the Christmas rush approaching its peak at the post office mail deliveries were made in Warren borough Sunday. Quite a line was at the stamp windows when they were opened at 7:30 o'clock this morning.

Santa's Aide Injured Setting Up a Tree

When Robert Geiger, 129 Conewango avenue, gets around to help decorate the family Christmas tree, his left thumb will be of little use in attaching the familiar baubles and tinsel.

Mr. Geiger was engaged in sawing off the stump of the tree, Sunday, when he sustained an injury to his left thumb which necessitated insertion of two sutures at Warren General Hospital. He was discharged after treatment.

Time Now for Successful Hunters To File Report of Kill With Commission

Warren county came proudly through the 1951 deer seasons without a single hunting accident, and local hunters turned over the weekend to accomplishing whatever bookkeeping is demanded of them by the Commonwealth in reporting kills made.

Every person who killed a legal deer in Pennsylvania is required to send to the Game Commission at Harrisburg, the completed big game report supplied with his hunting license. This report must be made to the Commission "within five days following the close of the season for the animal killed," the game law states.

In case a deer was taken by a person who already used his big game card to report a bear kill, the law requires that on a similar tag or post card such person shall, within five days following the close of season for the animal killed, mail to the Commission a statement setting forth the same information given on the report card attached to the license. This report is to include the kind of animal, whether male or female, the dressed weight, actual or estimated, and, if a male deer, the total number of points in both antlers.

David R. Titus, district game protector, said today that while many does were illegally killed during buck season, he knows of but one buck which was killed during doe season. This was found in a motorist's car at the road check on Route 6, near Log Cabin Inn, Saturday, and the hunter was required to pay a $100 fine.

Mr. Titus said two pure albino does were killed in the Chapman Dam area. One of them, an exceptionally large animal, had been wounded during buck season and he had planned to search for it and dispose of it should the doe survive the season, but it was killed the first day by a 21-year-old hunter from Erie county. The other albino, a smaller animal, also was killed by an Erie county hunter.

The game protector estimated today that this year's kill in Warren county was considerably less than a year ago. He said many of the deer seen going through here en route north and west came from the Potter county section where a heavy kill was reported, this being substantiated by highway check east of Warren county.

Many Warren county families had venison as their piece de resistance over the week-end, and deep freeze units are reported well filled for consumption over the holidays and in the future.

Barbershop Chorus Makes Entertaining Visits to Many Institutions of the Area

About 25 members of the Warren Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America (better known locally as the "Barbershop Singers") made a welcome visit yesterday afternoon and evening to several institutions in Warren and vicinity.

The chorus, under the direction of Earl Ericson, stopped first at the Rouse Hospital in Youngsville where they sang a group of traditional Christmas Carols and other songs in the Men's Building during the dinner hour, repeating the program in the Women's Building.

They were then treated to coffee and doughnuts by Superintendent Stan Lawrence and his capable staff.

They next visited the Hoffman Children's Home, with gifts of

RUN PIPE ON NEW WELL
Corry Journal: The latest gas well on Carter Hill is expected to be brought in by the Pennsylvania Gas Company within the next week or two, it was learned today. Drilling which had reached a depth of 4,300 feet, was suspended when the drilling crew began running the seven-inch pipe in the well. Put down within a few hundred feet of other successful wells in that district, the latest drilling has taken place on the Hazen Foltz farm. If successful, it would be the fourth production well the PGC has drilled since operations were started there more than five years ago. Natural gas, if it is hit, is expected to be found about 4,400 feet at the depth at which the other three wells were brought in. The recent cold weather has prompted the utility to turn the flow from those wells into the mains after they were capped off during the summer months.

HOME ECONOMICS

NOTES ON PECANS
Something like a pound of pecans for each person in this country were produced in the United States this year, according to early November estimates of agricultural economists.

The flavorful pecan is a strictly American product, native to North America from the lower Mississippi Valley to Texas and Mexico. Even the name is American. The chief production area of the pecan is in the South... and for this year's crop, Georgia alone is credited with an estimated 37 million pounds of pecans.

Use nuts in your everyday baked foods and confections, in poultry stuffings, and in many other dishes. Nuts also have a place in holiday cakes and cookies you've already started to make.

If you buy pecans in the shell, one pound will give you almost one and a half cups of kernels. In baked mixtures, pecans like other nuts tend to absorb moisture and make the finished product drier. When using a large proportion of the nuts, it's a good idea to put the nuts first in boiling water for a few minutes. Then drain and add them to the mixture in the usual way.

For something special, try pecan pie. Here's a recipe... Put one cup of whole pecans in the bottom of an unbaked pastry shell in a nine inch pie pan. Beat three eggs and add to them one-half cup sugar, one cup dark corn syrup, one-eighth teaspoon salt, one teaspoon vanilla, and one-fourth cup melted butter or margarine. Pour the filling over the nuts and bake the pie in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, 50 to 60 minutes. The nuts will rise to the top of the pie filling and form a crusted layer.

TIME FOR CAUTION

Otto F. Messner, Secretary of Revenue and chairman of the Governor's Highway Safety Advisory Committee, appeals to Pennsylvania's motorists to exert special caution while driving during the coming holidays.

"The Christmas-New Year season always brings with it the ghastliest toll of traffic deaths of any period in the year," he points out. "It is a tragic accompaniment to our happiest, most festive time, and a sad commentary upon our thoughtlessness."

The secretary reminds citizens of the state that a gruesome milestone in the nation's traffic history is close at hand.

"The millionth death in America's half-century of motoring is due. The doleful day is inevitable—no magic wand can be waved to stop its coming.

"But we can try to hold off the millionth fatality as long as possible," he says. "Each motorist in Pennsylvania can solemnly resolve that he or she will not be responsible for adding to this mounting total of precious lives lost.

"I believe we all should make that firm resolve."

'STRING 'EM UP, BOYS'

We may have to revive the old "give 'em a fair trial and hang 'em" school of justice. The rustlers are back.

Only this time they're not rustling cattle. It's tractors. May not be as romantic, but there are some advantages for the rustlers. A tractor can't bawl in the middle of the night as it's being spirited away. You don't have to work desperately to blot out a deeply seared brand on the tractor's flank. Just run the vehicle quickly through a "tractor dip" of fresh paint and its identity is lost.

Makes it tougher, of course, for the posse on the rustler's trail. No give-away sound of pounding hoofbeats. You can't stampede the vehicles back to their owner's pastures by uncorking a few lusty cowboy shouts. They don't likely travel in herds.

Maybe this new twist on an old game will give rise to a new kind of prairie policeman, a sort of combination Texas ranger and Canadian mountie. And of him perhaps it will be said: "He always gets his tractor."

TEARS ARE NEW TV VOGUE

One of our politicians broke down and cried during a speech the other day. That's what television will do. Those new films of Iran's Premier Mossadegh in tearful action on his home grounds have been getting around.

We had rather hoped that the vogue wouldn't catch on. We were especially encouraged when Mossadegh, with fine restraint, managed to curb the flow from his lachryma glands all during his American stay.

But the politicians like to experiment with new techniques. And, no question about it, Mossadegh has got one.

Of course, it really hasn't been tested at the polls yet. Iran has an election coming up before long, and then we'll see how Mossadegh's salty precipitation pays off. It might be wise for our own fellows to hold off until then. And they'd better give some thought, too, to what these crying spells can do to their TV make-up.

Nimrods and game officials alike are deserving of praise for the unusual safety record made during the deer hunting season in Warren county. It was the first season for several years that a shooting accident of some nature did not occur while the forests swarmed with big game hunters.

THE SONGS OF CHRISTMAS

It was far from a tranquil Christmas Eve that night in 1818. Outside a blizzard raged. Inside the Alpine home the young priest, Joseph Mohr, gave his blessing to a new-born babe.

Father Mohr brought the verses of his song to Franz Gruber, the organist. Gruber's setting of the music to the words was almost spontaneous.

When the people of the little Alpine town gathered for Christmas worship there was no sound from the organ, for it was out of repair. But the organist strummed his guitar and, joined by Father Mohr, sang "Silent Night, Holy Night."

On his way home from his mission the wind died down and the storm stopped. The moon came out and stars twinkled in the sky.

An organ repairman arrived a few days later, heard the song and sang it when he got home.

Illustrated by Walt Scott

Inspired by this calm and beauty, as well as by his visit to the young mother and child, he hurried home and began writing. The first words were "Silent Night, Holy Night."

On his way home from his mission the wind died down and the storm stopped. The moon came out and stars twinkled in the sky.

An organ repairman arrived a few days later, heard the song and sang it when he got home.

Here And There

A reminder of interest to sports followers is contained in an article that appeared on the first page of the Warren Evening Times of December 17, 1901, under the heading "First Indoor Baseball Game."

It seems that the game was between teams representing the old Columbian Athletic Club and the Warren Catholic Club and was played in St. Joseph's hall. Names found in the lineup include many of the old-time families of Warren. They were:

C. A. C.: D. Lytle, 2b; G. Kline, c; Dennis, p; Orr, 1b; Quay, r; Werle, 1ss; Mason, 1f; Hertz, rf; L. Kline, 3b.

W. C. C.: Doherty, 1b; Clark, 2b; Lavery, 3b; Mullan, 1f; B. Lytle, c; Dorsel, 1ss; Masters, rf; Hassett, p; Jennings, rf.

Regarding the game the article says:

"Indoor baseball made its initial bow before a Warren audience Tuesday evening at St. Joseph's Hall, when the Columbian Athletic Club team succeeded in defeating the team representing the Warren Catholic Club by a score of 28 to 14. From the enthusiasm shown by the small audience present one is led to believe that the game will come to be very popular before the close of the winter season. The pitching of Dennis was a complete puzzle to the W. C. C. and they were unable to solve his delivery to any extent. His raise ball was good, and he had perfect control. Doherty played a star game for his team, running bases well and accepting chances with regularity. The hall in which the game was played was about the right size for such exhibitions, the only inconvenience evident being the arrangement of the posts. The teams will meet again in the near future, and it is understood that a team from the YMCA will challenge the winner of last night's contest.

Monday Morning Cleanup: Orrie and Susie Beebe are already getting ready to close up "Shop" around the first of the year and trek to Florida for a well-earned rest, and during their tour expect to encounter many other present and former Warren residents including Albert (Left) and Edna Clark, former bowling alley proprietors in this city. ... A good story developed in connection with the visit of Santa Claus to a children's party at the Warren County Dairy Saturday morning after he had been presented by the appreciative mothers in the group with a package closely resembling a brick ice cream which he in turn gave to a couple grandchildren he interviewed before getting back into civilian attire, only to learn later, to the great disappointment of the tots, that the package was not ice cream, but a pound of butter. ... Despite temperature hovering near the zero mark and a blustery, biting wind, stores were well crowded with Christmas shoppers Saturday evening. ... Hunting parties were getting out of the woods in large numbers early Sunday morning, scores of out-of-state cars passing through the town, most of them westbound, and many of them displaying from one to four deer. ... Next Saturday will be the shortest day of the year with the sun rising at 7:13 a. m., and setting at 4:38 p. m. ... B. W. Tyler, Jr., former superintendent of the old Renovo Division of the P. R. R., will succeed J. D. Morris of the Pittsburgh Division.

Best Way to See Europe Is To Motor Through Rural Areas

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

MADRID—(NEA)—The best way to see Europe today is to get into an automobile and tour the sticks. Hanging around the capital and the big cities gives a completely warped impression of life in the various countries.

So, after a month's official Department of Defense-arranged tour of a dozen western European metropolitan centers to observe recovery and rearmament progress, this reporter and wife decided to try out rural reconnaissance by car.

Thanks to arrangements now perfected by the international travel department of American Automobile Association, French, British and American cars can be rented in the principal capitals, and it isn't necessary to buy a car in Europe or take your own automobile abroad though a lot of people still prefer that method.

The company which rented the car gave an allowance for oil and paid all repair bills, including a couple of new fan belts and a battery which went dead in the dark of the night on one of the loneliest roads in Spain.

Ford and Chevrolet, as well as the French cars, have good service stations in the major towns in Europe. Mechanics are well trained and they have good supplies of parts. Service on the bigger or less known cars might be difficult outside the biggest cities.

GASOLINE is expensive. It's equivalent to 70 cents a gallon in France, where sale is unlimited. In Spain it's 44 cents a gallon, but strictly rationed and you buy your coupons from the Bank of Spain, paying in dollars only. There is no limit on the amount of gasoline tourists may buy, but since Spain must import all her gasoline from the dollar areas, foreign users must pay for what they burn in dollars.

The French Ford, which is between the British and American models in size, gave 20 miles to the gallon. Total gas expenditures were $87. So the total automobile costs of the trip were around $520 for the month, or an average of a little over 14 cents a mile.

French roads are excellent and Spanish roads are in general terrible, though far better north of Madrid than south or east. A third-class road in France is the equivalent of a first-class road in Spain, with but few exceptions.

What you lose on bad roads, you make up for on other almost forgotten joys of motoring in the United States. The main advantage is that the roads aren't crowded with other passenger cars.

THERE is something about the Spanish truck driver which makes him go down the middle of the road and he is awfully difficult to pass. He seldom has a rear vision mirror—seldom has tall or stop lights, either—and he owns the road.

He gets this naturally from the donkey cart drivers from whom he is descended, for they go down the middle of the road, too.

French roads are excellently marked; Spanish roads, in the little towns, are often not marked at all. It helps if you speak the language, for you have to stop and ask your way often.

But all over Spain the people are the most polite and obliging on earth. They'll even run ahead of your car for blocks directing you.

Since the Spanish government controls the sale of gasoline, there are pumps only in the towns and cities. Many villages have only one pump. And the pump operator has to be found, particularly at siesta time. One pump was empty and we had to drive 50 kilometers to the next town.

However, if you will take your chances on all these things, you can have a lot of fun and see things you never saw before, some of which will be reprinted in this space in the next issue.

Savings Through Large Contributions to Hospital Fund Listed by Committee

The executive committee of the Warren General Hospital Campaign has prepared a statement showing how much can be saved by a larger subscriber to the $450,000 fund now being sought to complete its building expansion program. The saving to the subscriber is through the income tax deductions permitted by the Federal Government.

The statement follows:

APPROXIMATE COST TO YOU IN DOLLARS BASED ON A $1,000 GIFT

	Married Couple		Single Person
	1951	1952 & 1953	1951	1952 & 1953
Income tax exemptions	780.00	760.00	700.00	660.00
12,000	730.00	710.00	610.00	580.00
15,000	700.00	680.00	520.00	470.00
24,000	610.00	580.00	400.00	340.00
32,000	520.00	470.00	370.00	330.00
40,000	460.00	410.00	310.00	280.00

If an individual wants to give more than the 15% limitation on charitable deductions in any one year for income tax purposes, the deduction may be spread over two or three tax years. Personal tax savings may be easily estimated from the table above.

Never before has there been a time when a person could give so much for so little to such a good cause in Warren County.

Warren General Hospital needs help now, in order that it may help every man, woman and child in times of illness throughout the future years.

Point of View

Hospitals are never money-making institutions, and the great majority find it difficult to stay out of the red. Anyone who has just paid a hospital bill may doubt this statement; nevertheless it is a well-established fact.

Most organizations of this type like the Warren General Hospital, are on a non-profit basis and have no owners in the sense that this word is used by private enterprise. They are usually managed through a trusteeship and are built to afford services that are vital to the public welfare. Many receive their initial capital as a gift, and donations are required annually to make up the deficit.

Every patient, therefore, has the original philanthropist to thank for absorbing parts of his expense. In any other business venture, the sale of the commodity takes into account the cost of the capital employed, but in hospitals, the money paid by the guest goes for current expenses.

Hospital care is expensive and it is easy to understand why the undertaking is seldom lucrative. But few of us take into consideration what the same service would cost if duplicated by a well-run hotel. Three meals are served in the room each day, with supplementary beverages in between. Trained nurses, present, on each floor can be summoned by pressing a button.

In addition to attending to the needs of the ill, administering medicine, bathing, making beds and giving back-rubs—hours are spent by each shift in keeping records of each patient. Furthermore supervisors and superintendents of nurses are on the payroll. To give more efficient service, large laboratories are essential for X-rays and studies of the blood and tissues.

As with any other building, overhead costs are tremendous. As a rule, beds are provided for indigents from which no income is received. Moreover many run an out-patient department to handle emergencies. When everything is added up, statistics show that hospitals have more workers than patients, and institutions of any size generally run up to one and one-half employees for each bed.

All of the services mentioned, services vital to the public welfare are offered by the Warren General Hospital. Now, in addition, modernization is in progress and a campaign for essential building funds will soon be under way. It's up to everyone to help toward reaching the $450,000 goal.

RENT CONTROL NEWS RELEASE

Office of The Housing Examiner, Area Rent Office, 707 Commerce Building, Erie, Penn'a

Question: My landlord tells me he is going to apply for a 20 per cent increase. In 1948 he secured a 15 per cent increase from $30 to $34.50 per month. Does the 20 per cent increase mean that he will be entitled to 20 per cent of $34.50 or $6.20 additional rent?

Answer: No. Your landlord will not be entitled to a 20 per cent increase beyond $34.50 per month. Assuming that your rent was $30 per month on June 30, 1947, the 20 per cent will be figured on the $30 rent of that time. Your landlord will consequently be entitled to a rent of $36 per month following the submission of the proper forms to the rent office.

Question: Six months ago my tenant, without my permission, temporarily sublet his flat. I have just had a letter from my tenant advising me that he is not returning to Erie and that I may consider that he is no longer my tenant after December 1. I would like to evict the sub-tenant for the purpose of occupancy of my son. Do I have to petition the rent office for a certificate of eviction?

Answer: Assuming that the sub-tenant has never paid you rent, but has always paid rent to your tenant, the rent office would consider that no tenancy relationship existed between you and the sub-tenant, and that the sub-tenant was entitled to no protection from the federal law. The eviction of the tenant would be purely a question of Pennsylvania law.

purchase of a television set. My landlord pays the light bill for my apartment and the other apartments in the building. Will the landlord be entitled to an increase in rent if I got the television set? Can the landlord charge whatever he wants to?

Answer: Your landlord will be entitled to an increase in rent if he petitions the rent office and gets an order from the rent office increasing the rent. He will be acting in violation of the law if he collects additional money for the electricity used by your television set without proper authorization from the rent office.

Question: What does the rent office mean when it talks about the "freeze date?"

Answer: In each defense rental area, control authorities attempted to determine the date before which time defense activity had caused no significant increase in the general rent level. Whenever rent control was instituted in the area this date was selected as the date which would determine the proper rent level for dwelling units in that area. In the Erie county, Warren county, and Meadville-Titusville areas this freeze date was fixed as March 1, 1942. All units rented on that date were frozen as of the rent charged on that date, when these areas were brought under rent control.

Another Pageant At Trinity Church Enhances Tradition

Despite the extremely cold weather which descended over the weekend, Trinity Memorial church facilities were taxed to capacity Sunday afternoon for the traditional Christmas Pageant.

One of the outstanding features of the entire program was the initial appearance of the all-girl Junior Choir, a fact which was reflected in the generous freewill offering received for the purchase of vestments for that organization. Individual singing parts, the choral ensembles, and pantomimes were very well done throughout to add another page to the long tradition of beautiful Christmas presentations.

Director of the presentation for this season was Mrs. S. M. McClure, assisted by Mrs. Margaret H. Lewis and Mrs. John P. Wendell. Miss Ethel McCray was in charge of the music, with Miss Jean Robertson at the organ.

Mrs. L. N. Donaldson served as chairman of the pageant costume committee, with the following as her aides: Mrs. John E. Allen, Mrs. Florence Aldrich, Mrs. Homer Culbertson, Mrs. Robert S. Gibb, Mrs. S. M. McClure, John G. MacDonald, Mrs. Orin Manchester, Mrs. Henry Marymont, Mrs. George Sarvis, Mrs. Richard G. Smith, and the Rockwell Bible Class.

Elmer J. Christiansen was in charge of the lighting and the following served as properties committee: John F. Trevenen, Thomas K. Creal, Dr. William L. Ball, Eldo K. DeLong, Quinn Smith and the service committee.

Tapers on the altar were lighted by Leroy Christensen, Dale Coates, James Manchester and John Wendell with Harry Mong as the crucifer and boys of St. Vincent's Guild as the other acolytes.

Ushers for the service were Sidney W. Blackman, William E. Rice, Richard G. Smith and Horace M. Stevenson.

Addition of Florida State to Georgia Tech's 1952 grid schedule gave the Yellow Jackets a third new foe for next fall. Army and Tulane are the others.

Woman of the Year for '51

American newspaperwomen have chosen one of their own as "Woman of the Year" for 1951.

She is Marguerite Higgins. plucky and pretty young foreign correspondent for the New York Herald Tribune, whose coverage of the Korean war brought her both national headlines and a Pulitzer Prize. More recently, the pert, blond Maggie has traveled around the world writing a series, "Around Russia's Curtain," authored a book, "War in Korea," and covered the United States on a lecture tour.

It is interesting to note that in the poll of women editors of Associated Press newspapers, runner-up for the title of outstanding woman of the year was Princess Elizabeth, whose recent American tour made miles of headlines.

Several new names show up among the ten women voted outstanding in their respective field from the standpoint of news value.

Tops in the field of sports is Maureen Connolly, 16 year old winner of the national women's tennis championship—a teen-ager who has provided the nation's sports writers with a fresh and inspiring new personality to brighten up their pages.

In literature, the vote went to Rachel Carson, author of the best-selling "The Sea Around Us." Judy Garland topped the list in the theater, for her sensational success in bringing vaudeville back to Broadway.

In the field of science, editors chose Dr. Florence Sabin, one of three women doctors who were winners of the American Public Health Association's 1951 Lasker Awards.

Plan to buy at least one gift a day from now until Christmas.

SCENE FROM PAGEANT—A large audience of parents and friends gathered in the auditorium of Beatty Junior High School Sunday afternoon and thoroughly enjoyed the Christmas pageant presented by school pupils, their first venture in this type of holiday entertainment. Posing in the picture above are Becky Norris as Mary; Frederick Danielson as Joseph; Carol Jensen as the Angel Gabriel; with Jean Lyke, Sandra Rickerson, Donna Cable and Ann McBride as the other angels. The production was under the direction of Miss Mary Curran, of the Beatty faculty, with Carroll Fowler directing the chorus; Meredith Jones and Marcia Johnson in charge of make-up, and art work done by Miss Betty Risheberger and her pupils.

MENU SUGGESTIONS

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

PRETTY busy these days before Christmas? Everyone is. A few good budget menus will ease the feeding problem.

Dinner: Corned beef hash, julienne carrots, steamed spinach, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, chocolate tapioca pudding, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Glazed smoked ham, mashed potatoes, steamed spinach, celery, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, frosted cup cakes, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Oven fried fillets, baked potatoes, Harvard beets, cole slaw, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, pumpkin tarts, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Apricot sector, lamb, and vegetable pie, baked winter squash, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, frosted spice cake, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Veal balls in sour cream, spinach, buttered carrots, iced radishes and celery, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, nut and date squares, coffee, milk.

Looking for a novel Christmas gift? Well, we've just received a 14-ounce jar of artichoke relish. It's wonderful stuff to flavor meats and vegetables and fish dishes, made of Jerusalem artichokes, cabbage, peppers and onions, mustard sauce and herbs.

It is manufactured by Anne S. Russell of Spartanburg, South Carolina, a widow who went into this mail order business to support four sons. It's been a successful business because her artichoke relish is something really special to eat.

Craberry Cupcakes
(Yield: 18 2 1/2-inch cupcakes)

Cream the shortening and the sugar. Add eggs and beat well. Sift flour with the salt, soda and spices and add alternately with the sour cream and cranberry sauce, beginning and ending with flour. Add nuts. Fill oiled cupcake pans 3/4 full. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 25 minutes.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Sliced oranges, buckwheat griddle cakes, butter or fortified margarine, syrup, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Toasted peanut butter sandwiches, cole slaw, canned grapefruit sections, cranberry cupcakes, tea, milk.

Holidays at the Canteen

John Stachowiak, pictured at the left, the new Youth Canteen Program Director replacing James Hengst, announces a full schedule for The Spot for the holidays, which started with a dance Saturday night. The weekend affair was very successful and featured Warner Ahlgren's band in its first appearance at the Youth Center. Tonight and tomorrow the building will be closed, but the start of the school vacation will be celebrated with a record party Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9:30.

Topping the week's activity list will be Wednesday's dance and benefit midnight show. Deane Swanson and his orchestra, with special Christmas feature music, will play at The Spot from 8:30 to 11:30. Those holding the $1.00 ticket for the show will be admitted free to the dance, but those without a benefit ticket will be charged a nominal fee.

Doors at the Library Theater will open at 11:30 and those wishing tickets may purchase them from the Canteen committee or at the Texas Lunch, Cozy Corner, B & B Shoke Shop, United Cigar Store, Penn Restaurant, YMCA and YWCA.

The midnight showing is "Her First Romance," starring Margaret O'Brien, the proceeds to go toward paying off the Canteen's deficit. Closing out the week on Saturday night will be Beatty Junior High party from 8:30 to 11:30.

Memo to Miss Yakety-Yak, High-Pressure Saleswoman:

TO the super-saleswoman who chatters so fast and tries so hard to sell you the dress or suit you're trying on you get confused and don't know whether it's what you want or not. Relax, lady relax. Stop calling me "darling" and pointing out all the things about this suit I can see for myself in one glance. Don't try to impress me with the label. It's INSIDE the suit and nobody but me and my dry cleaner will ever see it. Don't tell me how "good" a particular color is this year. Just give me a good light and let me see whether or not it is becoming to me. Don't tell me what "High Fashion Magazine" says this month. Their professional models and I have absolutely nothing in common. Don't tell me how smart the dress is. What I'm interested in figuring out—and I can do it, too, if you'll just be quiet and give me a chance to think—is "Would I be smart to buy it?" Will it go with the shoes and handbag I've no intention of throwing out? Will it always be at the cleaners? Will it look all right at a after-the-game party? Will the man of the house like it?

GIVE THE CUSTOMER A CHANCE

THOSE, my dear lady, are the kind of questions that run through the average shopper's mind when she looks pensively into a full-length mirror and seems to be having a time making up her mind. She isn't standing there worrying over the label or what style magazines say or what the buyer just back from New York reports. She isn't trying to figure out whether or not purple is "good" this year. She is much more practical than that. And if you'll just give her a chance to answer the practical questions her mind is busy with she'll probably buy out of gratitude for your understanding.

Kordion Kids Band Has Pleasing Party At Pleasant Grange

Members of the Engstrom Kordion Kids' Band and their families turned out 100 per cent for the dinner at party held in Pleasant Grange Hall Saturday evening.

The two long tables were beautifully decorated with spruce and Christmas ornaments, each centered with Christmas trees. Candy canes with small Santa Claus trinkets were used as favors and much enjoyed.

Murray Cameron announced the following interesting program after the serving:

Welcome, Gilbert Peterson, in which Mr. Peterson in his usual commendable manner welcomed all the musicians in behalf of the parents expressing thanks for their fine work and whole-hearted cooperation.

Response, Marilyn Armstrong, who welcomed the parents and friends in behalf of the Kids, expressing appreciation for the wonderful help received, especially from those who furnished cars for the various long trips the band has taken over the past few months.

A letter was read from a former member, Miss Joanne Tangway, of Nelsonville, O., after which Miss Armstrong presented Mrs. Engstrom with a Christmas corsage, explaining it was a token of appreciation for her efforts in behalf of the band members.

Mrs. Engstrom then called upon the musicians presenting each with a gift, when it was revealed that the Yule tree was decorated with bank envelopes, containing a new $100 bill for each youngster.

The adult door prize was awarded to Mrs. Decker, and the child's prize was presented Larry Cameron.

Fine movies were enjoyed through the courtesy of Dan's Chevrolet, which furnished a screen, and Archie Hunter, who provided the projector. "Silent Night" was sung by the group with the words thrown upon the screen, after which square dancing was enjoyed.

The committee in charge of the successful Yuletide party was composed of Mrs. Kathryn Koebley, Mrs. Murray Cameron, Mrs. Stuart Loding and Mrs. Gilbert Peterson.

Big News Item In Life Insurance

A dispatch from Hartford, Conn., says the recent announcement that the Connecticut General Life Insurance Company, of Hartford, are reducing premiums, and also are making the reduction retroactive to December 11, 1950, is the big news in life insurance today. In these days of rising costs any reduction is considered in the nature of an event.

Stuart E. Aberg, district agent, explains the situation as follows: It has always been Connecticut General's policy to pass to the policy holder any benefits that are justified and available. In this instance in Connecticut General the balance between the three factors that determine life insurance premium rates has in recent years undergone a significant change. Connecticut General policy holders are living longer. This is attributable in part to the great advances of medical science. It is in part because of good selection of clients in which field representatives and home office underwriters have worked together to obtain a highly satisfactory result. Despite low interest rates and unavoidable increases in operating costs, the trend in mortality justifies a broad reduction in guaranteed cost premium. In general there are reductions in all ages. Of outstanding note is the fact that reductions for the older ages are proportionately much larger than for the younger ages. This is an action historically unique in the business.

Warren Shows Strength; Holds Fast Erie East Team to 64-50 Core in Hard-Earned Victory

Third Team Shows Fight But Jayvees Out to 59-31 Win

The underclassmen of the Warren High junior varsity proved themselves worthy again as they won the third game, 59-31, in the final scrap before the Warren-Jayvees game on Saturday night, Friday.

Both teams played tight ball in the first period, scoring eight points apiece but the Dragonsnettes opened up before intermission with a 21-point rally that gave them a 29-18 lead. From there the Baby Blue and Whites continued to pile up the score and were undefeated at home with three wins. Their only loss was at Jamestown in an overtime.

Bob Wilson and Gary Eitinger led for high honors with 13 counts each. Little Don Dick was out with 10 for the JV's. Junior Ward, Stu Kornreich had nine lead the Thirde.

Would Have Counties Handle Doe Licenses

Harrisburg, Dec. 15—(AP)—A proposal to place issuance of hunting licenses for antlerless deer solely in the hands of counties is before the state legislature today.

The Senate last night passed the measure sponsored by Senator Samuel B. Wolfe (R-Union) and Montgomery F. Crowe (R-Monaca). It would boost the license fee from $1.10 to $1.15 with 15 cents going to the issuing agent.

Under the bill, a group of counties would be permitted to band together for issuance of the licenses. Present law permits the Revenue Department to issue 40 per cent of the licenses and county treasurers the remainder.

Hunters Must File Reports of Kills

Harrisburg, Dec. 17—(AP)—The State Game Commission today warned hunters who bagged a deer or bear this year that they must file a report on the kill.

The commission said the report must be filed, with the hunter's license, within five days after the close of the season for the animal killed.

Hunters bagging both a deer and a bear must file a separate report on each. His license must be sent with one report and a postcard listing his license number on the other report, the commission said.

Strong Wattsburg Quintet Wins Over Sugar Grove, 52-18

Sugar Grove-Farmington floor-men were forced to accept their fifth straight defeat of the season Friday night when they played host to a strong Wattsburg quintet and lost by a 52-18 score.

It was the second time Wattsburg had taken the Groves, winning 69-31 in the first meeting. The out-of-townners dominated the game from the whistle and hit the double figure mark steadily in each period.

Khek, Bayle and Ramsdell swished the cords for 13, 12, and 11 points respectively for the victors and Chuck Smith led the county team by scoring half their points on two field goals and five free tosses.

TWO GOOD GAMES ARE SLATED TONIGHT IN YMCA-CITY LOOP

Sport fans will be in for some big thrills tonight in the YMCA-City League when the Warren Business School team tangles with Paul's Athletic at 7:30 o'clock and the Style Shop mixes it up with the Texas Lunch.

The Schoolboys will be out to stay in the running with their 3-1 record, which ties them for second place with the Style Shop, but will be only a slight favorite over the improving Atlantic five.

So far the station lads have only picked up a single win in three contests.

The key game tonight will be at 8 o'clock when the league leading Texas Lunch quintet is sure to be in for a battle with the defending champs. A victory for the defense would mean a two-way tie for top spot, and should the WBS team win, too, there would be three teams sharing the lead.

With a fortune—that's right, a life stake and then some—at stake, you see, the native roots for the horse on which he has wagered much more passionately than he does at the baseball park or soccer game, where he is among the world's more-excitable and vociferous fans.

And, of course, as elsewhere, the tendency of those who can least afford it is to overbet.

The Hipodromo Nacional offers more combinations than the American player ever dreamed of before Kefauver. Our daily double and quinella would only be lost in the shuffle down here in the oil and iron country. You may bet them win, place and show. Horses are paired into six combinations. In order for you to win, one of the first couple must bounce down in front and one of the second has to place, or vice versa, depending on how you purchased the ticket.

YET all the pari-mutuel (no totalizer) betting is insignificant compared to what is called the Five and Six. The optimistic Venezuelan, you understand, butts his brains out trying to win a six-horse parlay.

Plus, is a nation-wide. You buy a form for a half a bolivar, or 10% cents. Picking six winners costs four bolivars, or b's, which is $1.434.

For that it is possible for the longest stabber to win up to $300,000. Now you know what keeps the suckers biting.

Sheffield Tallies Its Fourth Victory of Season by Winning Over Youngsville High, 55-39

Through The Wind Tunnel

Those two intrepid ninnyrods, George Boston and Able Juliano, have returned from the wars in Potter county, scalp dangling at their belts.

Anything can happen in those two Y-M-C-A League games at the "Y" tonight. Teresa and Brick will have their hands full in the left tonight, and other fans would do well to drop in and see what takes place.

We had a nice talk, Saturday night, with Harry Conroy, Nameless Five star of half a century ago, and found him as interested as ever in the progress of sports in Warren.

"I am enclosing a folder put out by the Chamber of Commerce for the accommodation of hunters and fishermen," writes Jim Blomquist of North Warren. "There is one listing there I would like to have you see because it would be right in with your story about Abigail. The editorial in the paper the other night was very encouraging to the committee of the Chamber of Commerce on accommodations for hunters and fishermen. We expanded this folder last year to cover the whole year rather than just the hunting season, hoping that it might attract tourists to our community in summer as well as just the hunting season. From my travels around the country I think we have just as fine scenery to offer here as anywhere in our fair land. There may be a few spots more spectacular, but once seen they become an old chestnut. Our scenery is ever-changing and would be a source of delight to tourists for several weeks at a time if they were just to stay in Warren and cover this section."

They've started to arrive home from schools near and far, and from military bases all over the nation. Within a few days, Warren's population for the holiday season will have been increased considerably.

Looks like the Marine Corps League's dancing party, Christmas night, will be a sell-out. The boys say they've never seen so much advance interest in the event. Let's hope for warmer weather because many an evening gown is being brought out and looked over, with a bow added here and a button added there, and six below is not conducive to strapless comfort.

Sheffield High School cagers made it quite evident to Youngsville who is boss of the hardwood in the county this year when they walloped the Red and White cagers, 55-39, on their own floor, Friday night.

The visit to Youngsville was a return game for the two teams this season, and gave the Wolverines their fourth win in six starts. The Eagles, who were defeated only 38-31 the first time, now have three consecutive losses in as many tries.

Sheffield's height was an advantage in the contest in giving control of the boards. The Santonemes took 33 rebounds to the Eagles' 15. In the shooting percentage Sheffield almost doubled that of the Eagles, with 47 per cent of their shots. Youngsville hit 25 per cent.

Coach Frank Kamus and his squad trailed by three points in every period except the first when the Orange and Black nipped them for a seven-point margin, 15-8.

Jerry Carr and Larry Fitzgerald, Ralph Santo's only returnees from last season, hit for 13 and 12 points respectively, and Dave Peterson stole the night's honors with 14 for Youngsville.

The Eagles will be idle until they play host to Marienville on January 4, but Sheffield has two more on the card before the holidays, traveling to Tonesta tomorrow night and then has Warren High as its guest this Friday.

Stan Musial Gets Silver Bat Trophy

St. Louis, Dec. 17—(AP)—Stan (The Man) Musial has a new silver bat for his trophy case.

The St. Louis Cardinal outfielder won the National League batting crown for 1951—the second consecutive year he's been the top hitter in the senior circuit.

No one else has managed to win the crown two years running since Rogers (Rajah) Hornsby made a habit of it with Cardinals from 1920 thru 1925.

Silver bats are awarded annually to the champions.

Kiehl, Spence Run Wild for Sigel In Defeating Tionesta

A 31-point scoring spurge in the last half of Friday night's contest gave Sigel High varsity men a decisive 51-20 win over Tionesta.

The home team only lead 20-18 at intermission, after Tionesta blasted a 24-point second period scoring spree, but then acquired quarters of 14-9, and 17-9 for a happy climax.

Spence and Kiehl, Sigel forwards, tallied 19 and 14 points respectively, and Sweet was high man for Tionesta with 17.

In the prelim Tionesta JV's walked off with a 19-13 victory.

New Storm Center Reported in West

face the month's first below-zero weather.

Week-end weather was a conglomeration of unpleasant experiences, starting with snowfall Saturday afternoon, cold rain and sleet Saturday night, more snow during the night, and a Sabbath so cold but sunshiny that a winter rainbow was reported in the afternoon. High on Sunday was 12 above, with the mercury taking a nose dive to as low as 16 below zero in Warren county during the night. It was six below in Warren, ten below at Sugar Grove, eleven below at Morrison Run and sixteen below in Pleasant township.

By Sunday morning, Warren borough street-cleaning crews had the borough streets in good condition, and main highways were reported clear and well sand.

Weather predictions call for a "warm spell" tomorrow—the mercury is expected to go as high as 20 above! But it was anticipated there will be another low tonight.

Local garages and service stations reported heavy sales of tire chains over the week-end, and many a car had to be "thawed out" this morning even though its owner thought he had ample anti-freeze in the radiator to meet a drop to twenty below.

The "Santa Claus" train, which is the second section of No. 581 from the east, carrying only mail and express, arrived in Warren ahead of its first section this morning when the regular No. 581 reported into the local division two hours and twenty minutes late.

Reason for the delay of the first section was not known here, and it was deemed advisable by railroad officials to run the second section through to Warren.

Communications on railroad circuits were at a low this morning, also, with the first below zero temperature of the year which always results in much wire snapping along right of ways. New radio telephony, installed recently in dispatchers' towers along the division aids greatly in overcoming the handicap caused by wire breakage.

Philadelphia Merger Plan Is Contested

for a one-half of one per cent income tax.

The program calls for speeding up collection of corporation taxes, imposing a new one per cent tax on real estate transfers, increasing inheritance taxes and removing tax exemptions now enjoyed by for-hire truckers, bus firms and some insurance companies.

The house reconvenes in the afternoon but the only major issue before it is a vote on a measure to require all public employees, including teachers, to take an oath that they are not members of subversive organizations.

The coming week is also expected to see a special 10-man senate investigating committee act on charges by Sen. John J. Haluska (D-Cambria) that he was offered state insurance business and state jobs to vote for the income tax.

On congressional reapportionment, senate Republicans devised a plan which Democrats immediately criticized as "the worst example of gerrymandering since the Civil War."

Senator Dent, in making the criticism, said it would knock out seven Democratic congressmen in next year's election, if passed.

Five Probes Launched In Plane Crash

It was the first crash in 22 months of an non-scheduled airliner.

The plane seemed to be in trouble even before it left the ground. Its right engine belched black smoke. Emergency ground crews were alerted for trouble. But the plane got off the runway sluggishly.

Besides Lyons, the plane carried two co-pilots, J. R. Mason and Edward Lilly, both of Miami. The stewardess, Doris Helms, also was from Miami. Lyons, who learned to fly when he was 16, was an in-

CAROL FESTIVAL AT BEATY TONIGHT

Tonight's the night, eight o'clock is the time, and cold weather has never been a deterrent to school music patrons—so another record audience is anticipated for the annual Christmas Carol Festival at Beaty Junior High School. There is no admission and no collection at the door for this holiday event, which has been staged annually for a number of seasons by the high school and Beaty music groups. Audience participation for carol singing is always one of the highlights of these events and tonight's program will continue that tradition.

PAST GRANDS' MEETING

The December meeting of the Warren-Forest Past Grands' Council will be held this evening in IOOF Hall in Youngsville, following the regular meeting of Youngsville Lodge. Officers will be elected and other important business considered after which refreshments will be served and a social time enjoyed.
